FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: December 16, 2011

Headline: GROWING BUSINESS ONLINE WITH A QUALITY WEBSITE

JACKSONVILLE, FL USA – December 16, 2011- Freedom Management Marketing and Consulting has released new service brands to help companies accomplish their goals online. Powered by the latest internet technology, this new service changes the way people will look at their business prospects online. It allows business owners to get impressive web site results turn-key. Looking to jump start 2012 with a high quality website, YourOnline.biz has been released with discounted rates for a limited time. The name was chosen with the thought of “Your online business”.

After establishing itself as a high quality technology solutions provider, Freedom Management Marketing and Consulting introduced its solution for small business to make a large impact online. YourOnline.biz has integrated the need for companies to have a quality online presence with the need for individual service throughout the process.

The website is also accessible from mobile phones and only takes moments to request service from a personal web developer online or by phone.

Freedom Management Marketing and Consulting has stepped to the forefront by providing a high quality, affordable and flexible internet solution. The most popular features of the internet are included in the website design packages. The company is focused on innovation in technology implementation and cost efficiency. The company’s services are intuitive and scale seamlessly with business growth.
